

Greetings from Seoul, Korea!

It is our great honor to invite you to the 10th International Conference of the Asian Clinical Oncology Society which will be held from June 13th to 15th, 2012 in Seoul, Korea.

Under the theme of “Work together to Make a Difference for Cancer Therapy in Asia”, we strongly believe that it will provide participants with an outstanding opportunity to meet colleagues from around the world and exchange knowledge for the advancement of cancer care. The conference will also no doubt leave participants with many unforgettable memories of Korea’s unique and beautiful culture and surroundings.

Dr. Waun Ki Hong (MD, Anderson Cancer Center, USA), a world authority in multidisciplinary translational research, clinical research using bio-markers and cancer prevention research, Prof. Masaki Kitajima (International University of Health and Welfare, Japan), a pioneer in the development of new technologies in gastric cancer surgery, and Dr. Raju Kucheralapati (Harvard University, USA), a leading researcher in the cancer genomics field, will deliver plenary lectures at the ACOS2012. 80 additional scientific sessions and 17 satellite symposia will also be included to provide you with a diverse and substantial scientific program.

We are pleased to announce that online registration for the ACOS2012 will be available from October 1st, 2011. For more details, please visit our official website at www.acos2012.org and the 2nd Announcement at http://www.acos2012.org/images/main/2nd_announcement.pdf.

We hope you will have meaningful time at the ACOS2012 and look forward to meeting you in Seoul, Korea.
